GENERAL SHIELDS ON THE DUTY OF THE TIMES.—The following is an extract from a speech made during the present month by Gen. Shields at a great Union meeting held at Washington, where all party distinctions were ignored. Gen. Shields said that cheers and resolutions will never whip the Secessionists and put down the rebellion. We must do more than this. We must do away with old party dissensions, and unite in a common cause to rout treason's unnatural children who are smitten with the infernal doctrines of the rebellion. Shields [illegible] this at the national capital, and the press has given it to the hearing of all Irishmen in the United States. [illegible] and [illegible] have over and over again given their fellow countrymen the same advice to repudiate connection with politicians, whether they appear in the shape of Democratic enemies of the Administration or of Rebel enemies of the country.—Herald and Mirror.

OUR MINISTER TO RUSSIA.—Cassius M. Clay will resume his post as Minister to Russia on the first of October.

Mr. Cameron has already notified the Government of his desire to leave Russia, and indeed it is well known that he only intended to fill the position of United States Minister at St. Petersburg for a few months, the appointment having been offered and accepted as a salve for the pain of his removal from the Cabinet.

When the devil rebelled, God didn't swear him and ask him to give bond.—Louisville Journal.

No; but he gave him a pass beyond the lines to go South.—Nashville Union.

TUESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 16, 1862

Fortifications at the Mouth of the Columbia.

In the House of Representatives of this State, on the 10th instant, Mr. Haines, of Jackson county, introduced a memorial asking Congress to make appropriations for the erection of fortifications at the mouth of the Columbia river. We believe that an appropriation of one hundred thousand dollars has already been made for this purpose. This will answer for a beginning.

We learn that General Alvord has pressed the necessity of fortifying the mouth of the Columbia upon the attention of the proper Department of the Government, and has made a requisition for some sixty pieces of heavy ordnance. He has also communicated to the General commanding this Military Department the propriety of a prompt response to the requisition and the construction as soon as possible of temporary batteries to command the mouth of the river.

General Alvord has also made a direct appeal to the Secretary of the Navy, to direct the construction of an iron clad steamer, after the model of the Monitor, for the defense of the Columbia river, and other harbors on the Puget Sound.

In case of war with an European power our gold mines would offer a rich prize to a powerful enemy. The mouth of the Columbia, defended by adequate fortifications and a steamer of the character of the Monitor, we should have little cause for apprehension of conquest.

It is understood that an iron steamer is to be built at San Francisco. The iron to be used in her construction would have to be brought from the Atlantic Coast—a distance by ocean of nine thousand miles.

We have at our own door iron ore from which the material of the very best quality could be obtained for building iron steamers and all the materials of war, made of iron, required for this Coast.

We are glad to see measures in progress for placing our Coast in a state of defense. Our two Senators and one new Representative in Congress, will work together to secure the success of the measure.

MILITARY APPOINTMENTS.—Col. J. Steinberger, commanding at Fort Walla Walla, W. T., has issued orders for the organization of another company for his regiment, at Walla Walla. The captaincy has been tendered to Mr. J. M. Cannady, a prominent citizen of that place. Messrs. P. E. Toohill and Christian Goetz have been commissioned as lieutenants.

The last named gentlemen served faithfully on the Fort Benton Road Expedition, and we are glad to notice this mark of appreciation of the merit of two old soldiers at the hands of Col. Steinberger. The three companies now at Fort Walla Walla, are nearly full.

THE MINES.—The mining campaign for the season will close in furnishing abundant evidence that we have a vast gold country East of us, that the gold to be taken from the mines will rapidly increase in amount from year to year, that the settlement and improvement of Oregon and Washington Territory will be rapidly onward—giving full employment to all our industrial population. It will take some time to get all our different branches of business to meet the present and coming demands, but this will be done, and hereafter we shall have a constant and increasing stream of emigration from the Eastern States. Let every man everywhere, go to work and prepare for the change of times now coming upon us.

THE FAITH OF ARCHBISHOP HUGHES.—In a recent address in Dublin Archbishop Hughes speaking of the necessity of the American Union one and inseparable, expressed his faith to this effect, as follows:

I tell you that, even if peace was restored to the whole country of America to-morrow, the people would scarcely unbelt themselves until they had put other questions right. * * It is one country still, and must and shall be one. No matter what may occur—no matter the foreign interference, whether military or naval, that may destroy the cities round the border of that country—no matter what may occur, the question must end, and that people shall remain.

According to a statistical article in the Scientific American, the number of sewing machines annually manufactured in this country is 70,000. Twelve or fourteen establishments are engaged in the business. The number of machines made in 1853 was only twenty five hundred. Up to the present time (from 1852 to 1862) the aggregate is two hundred thousand, and three hundred and fifty American patents for improvements upon the original design have been taken out within thirteen years.

Hon. Calvin H. Hale, Superintendent of Indian Affairs for Washington Territory, arrived at Walla Walla on Wednesday last. He was en route for Lewiston on business connected with his department.

An ex M. C. out West has 42 feet of boys in the service of their country—seven sons averaging six feet in height.

The Fall Campaign.

At the first glance over the [illegible] it may seem that the [illegible] affairs [illegible] brilliant with [illegible] of triumph for the Union arms during the Fall. The [illegible] statement that [illegible] perhaps two hundred thousand strong approaches the Potomac while an [illegible] more than thirty thousand [illegible] foreign [illegible] Ohio appears to [illegible] with gl[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] so cheering to the [illegible] [illegible] hopes of [illegible] gold [illegible] we cannot but [illegible] the rebellion is making [illegible] maintain an existence [illegible] States [illegible] the leaves [illegible] the fall [illegible] an early victory [illegible] to be [illegible] taken at the [illegible]

When the [illegible] the defeat of McClellan in front of [illegible] had [illegible] secure [illegible] the usurpers were [illegible] there was [illegible] shown the world that they could [illegible] own Capital [illegible] turing Washington and Cincinnati and carrying the war into the free States [illegible] strike terror [illegible] the North [illegible] remove all [illegible] movements at the close of the month of August were parts of the [illegible] Now how [illegible] Halleck's [illegible] forces north of the Rappahannock [illegible] vancing army was confronted [illegible] force under Pope and [illegible] bloody battles [illegible] great that [illegible] the rebels [illegible] ly, if not quit [illegible] able to capture the National Capital [illegible] could not capture [illegible] during the retreat of Pope from Centreville and they cannot cross the Potomac without fighting and winning other battles which would still further weaken and cripple their army. Meantime, such has been the effect [illegible] a sense of impending peril, that for the first time during the contest that [illegible] is really rushing to arms [illegible] are reaching the [illegible] as railroads can carry them. This is the situation in Virginia at the opening of the Fall campaign. Halleck has [illegible] the offensive programme of the rebel [illegible] but placed his own army, which is constantly increasing in strength, in a good position for assuming the offensive at an early day, and prosecuting a campaign in which the fatal blunders of McClellan will be avoided.

But, say the fear stricken [illegible] Kirby Smith is approaching the Ohio and threatening Cincinnati and Louisville. [illegible] Kirby Smith has no more men [illegible] command than Jackson had [illegible] down the Shenandoah Valley. [illegible] served to put Ohio and Indiana under arms and an army is [illegible] of Kentucky which Kirby Smith, with two or [illegible] his present force would not venture to confront. His operations are clearly designed to prevent reinforcements from the West reaching Virginia. He will hardly capture Covington while Lew Wallace commands the defenders and if he were to remain in that vicinity long enough, General Wright would exhibit a deplorable lack of energy in permitting the escape of any portion of the invading force.

The croak of the desponding—to the effect that "we are back where we were a year ago" is inexpressibly silly. What flag floats over New Orleans—the commercial heart of the South? Who commands the Mississippi, the great artery of Southern trade? What soldiers garrison Nashville and Memphis—which were one year ago the centers of rebellion in the West? Were Curtis in Arkansas, Rosecrans in Mississippi and Buell in North Alabama a year ago? The truth is the progress of the national arms during that year, notwithstanding the reverses in Virginia, has greatly simplified the work [illegible] the rebellion. The main strength of the Confederacy is concentrated [illegible] the army commanded by [illegible] of that force will shatter the [illegible] power into mere bands of guerrillas which may be hunted down and hung or shot at our leisure. Our faith is strong that with Halleck to plan, Pope, Burnside, Sumner, Heintzleman, Banks, Sigel, Fitz John Porter, Franklin and Hooker with veteran divisions recruited to their primitive strength to execute, the old flag will be triumphantly carried to Richmond ere the snow shall weave shrouds for the dead braves of Manassas.—[illegible]

General McClellan's army before Richmond, as stated by General Howard of Maine, was much less in numbers than has been generally supposed. General Howard was in the battle of Fair Oaks and [illegible] His brigade behaved very gallantly. He returned to Maine while recovering from his wounds, and recently delivered a speech in which a Bangor paper reports him as follows:

"In a speech at the recent war meeting in Bangor General Howard gives the number of the Army of the Potomac when it left Yorktown at eighty thousand, and says that it did not exceed forty thousand when it reached its new position on James river—having been thus seriously [illegible] by sickness and death."

PROJECT FROM ELI THAYER.—New York, Sept. 8th.—The Tribune's Washington correspondent says: Eli Thayer is here urging with hopes of success the Government to adopt a plan for the colonization of rebellious States as a war measure. His project is to throw Northern and foreign emigration into the insurrectionary Gulf States and hold under the auspices of the Government such formidable bodies as to [illegible] guerrillas. He wishes to make the initiatory experiment in Florida.

LONDON TIMES PROPHECIES.—In a recent issue the London Times predicts, first, that we can never raise 300,000 more volunteers; and, second, that a draft will only be talk of." It may interest the prophetic Times says the New York Herald, to know that our 300,000 more volunteers are already raised, and that a draft has already been ordered. Try again.

The New Orleans correspondent of the New York Times states that the engineer of the cut off by which Vicksburg was to have been made an inland city, told him that the negroes employed in the work mostly belonged to Jeff. Davis, his brother and a Dr. Metcalf.

A Chicago banker, Lazarus Silverman by name, who recently went to Memphis with $30,000 in hard gold intending to purchase cotton, was captured by Jeff. Thompson's guerrillas with all his cash.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

LATER FROM THE EAST.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—A paroled prisoner who arrived here last night says 60,000 rebels have crossed into Maryland. The main body of them crossed over the Monocacy. He passed through their lines and counted 27 batteries. This statement is believed by military men here.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 8.—Rumors are in circulation that the rebels are gathering near Westminster [illegible] miles from Baltimore.

Some officers from the army express the opinion that the rebels [illegible] moving on Baltimore.

HARRISBURG, Penn., Sept. 9.—[illegible] rebels [illegible] Pennsylvania [illegible] Hanover, York county, with the intention [illegible] the Northern Central Railroad. Arms are being rapidly [illegible] to the counties on the southern border.

MARTINSBURG, Penn., 7th.—Rebel cavalry [illegible] attacked the Federal [illegible] at this point to-day, but were repulsed with [illegible] loss. About 50 prisoners were taken with their horses and arms. The [illegible] killed and wounded is not known. Our loss was two killed and [illegible] wounded.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—Gen. Hunter and staff have arrived. He is [illegible] by Gen. Mitchell.

A Washington letter dated Sept. 6th says McClellan is [illegible] placed in command of the armies of the Potomac and Virginia. [illegible]

[illegible] commanding at Fort Abercrombie writes that a large number of Indians [illegible] around the Fort and [illegible] all the Government mules [illegible] He also says that unless reinforcements arrive soon he will be compelled to abandon the post.

HARRISBURG, Penn., Sept. 9th.—The latest information received says the rebel pickets were within 12 miles of Hanover, York Co.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—Gen. Pope has been assigned to the command of the Department of the Northwest, to operate against the Indians.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 9th.—Information from Fort Ridgely under date of the 4th says the Federal forces have been attacked by 200 [illegible] miles from the Fort. During the engagement the troops managed to throw up breastworks of dead horses and earth behind which they [illegible] reinforcements arrived. Thirteen whites were killed and [illegible] wounded. Before the engagement our forces [illegible] buried 800 of the massacred whites.

OMAHA, Sept. 9th.—Letters from Sioux City say messengers from the Yankton [illegible] bring information that the [illegible] the event of rising against the whites. Some tribes of Dacotahs have already been attacked. Their women and children are flying to Fort Randall and Sioux City for protection.

CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—A special dispatch says Garibaldi has been [illegible] himself taken prisoner. [illegible]

PARIS, Aug. 1st.—The [illegible] Garibaldi [illegible]

Later.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9th.—The Times editorial says Gen. McDowell is in this city under arrest, and we are informed on the charge of treason, by whom preferred or on what grounds we are not aware.

U. S. NOTES.—The objections which are [illegible] against the paper money of the American and French Revolutions, and which only the stern necessities of the times were sufficient to overcome, do not at all apply to our present financial system. Our paper money has a real basis of value, for it is based upon the resources of the country rendered available to the Government through the Tariff and Tax bills, which constitute part of the integral system.

We are protected against an over issue, for the amount for which notes can be issued is definitely settled by acts of Congress. We also have a practical provision for the redemption of the notes—for they are convertible into bonds which have not only their interest paid in specie, but are themselves payable in specie after the lapse of a few years.—S. F. Herald.

A [illegible] OF DEFEAT.—Among the letters [illegible] on board the steamer Mary [illegible] lately captured by the Magnolia [illegible] out of Charleston was one from [illegible] American Commissioner to China [illegible] at Paris. It was very long and [illegible] in its description of the state of affairs in Richmond. It is not permitted to copy the letter at length because it has been sent to Washington for the information of the Government, but the substance of it was this: That the cause of the Confederacy is lost—a confession which occurs more than once, and that the late battles before Richmond, though they may have been disastrous to the Federal army, were exceedingly disastrous to the rebels. At the time the letter was written Ward estimated the number of wounded men from these battles at no less than fifteen thousand.—Times.

General Halleck has proposed to the President to fill up the officers of all the new regiments which may be formed from those already in the service, instead of appointing them from the ranks of the [illegible] civilians or others who may be instrumental in raising regiments. This plan seems [illegible] will be of great service to the army. It will all [illegible] to many worthy officers who have endured hardship and privation for the cause of their country and will secure to the new levies commanders who understand their duty in the field. It will be seen by the list of promotions [illegible] the New York [illegible] [illegible] that quite a number of non-commissioned officers have been promoted to lieutenancies.

The [illegible] of the [illegible] from the State of Mississippi, Arkansas and Tennessee are not of a very encouraging nature. The drouth has been very hard in some sections, though wheat has not been seriously affected. The case is different with corn and cereals. What little [illegible] was expected to be raised is also suffering from dry weather. Generally speaking, the South is not [illegible] its own, but it must [illegible] with stand the ground [illegible]

The London Times says: "the scheme of a terrible levy of troops to a republic to subjugate and hold down another republic is one that will hardly be seriously proposed even by the most fanatical of Mr. Lincoln's advisers." But the scheme of a formidable levy of traitors in one part of the Republic to put down and destroy the Government can meet [illegible] such praise from the London Times. That scheme was quite in keeping with its notions of property. Jeff. Davis is cheered at Oxford. [illegible] Every thing in John Bull's eyes is quite lawful and proper which aims at the [illegible] the Government of the United States—nothing which aims to preserve it [illegible] tolerated. John will [illegible] [illegible] ings on the Times.

Portland, July 8th 186[illegible] tf

From the Oregon Farmer.

Ornamental Shrubs of Oregon, or Making Home Attractive.

The Oregon Farmer of Sept. 1st, pointed out the importance of making home attractive. Home is not simply the house in which you live. It must have its surroundings and adornments. It must have its shady recesses, its neat lawns, its well cultivated gardens, and its shelter of foliage. And all, or part of this, the owner of the cabin, as well as he of the mansion or cottage can enjoy. Gardens in town certainly would look more attractive to have clumps of ornamental shrubs, shady trees, and patches of hardy flowers interspersed over a close thick set green sward, than they do crowded with those ill shaped fruit trees. An apple tree in its place is good enough; but it makes a very unsightly ornamental tree. So does a pear or plum tree. The cherry is much better adapted for a yard tree. But none have the attraction to a passer by, that is given by a few flowering and shady shrubs, or a bowery of honeysuckles, roses and other climbers. And why not put shrubs instead of fruit trees in the towns of Oregon? Fruit is now so cheap that the value of it can not be an object, and then fruit trees grow scrawny and more unsightly every year, while shrubs give more satisfaction as they grow larger and denser and shadier.

I will throw out a few hints as to what and how we shall plant. My remarks have particular reference to gardens in towns, where there is a lot or block to set out. For the country, where from 1 to 2 acres can be devoted to ornamental purposes, a more extended plan must be adapted. Many of our noble forest trees, evergreen and decidous, can to advantage be used

I will now give a list of such of our native shrubs, as are best adapted for the above purpose, and can be had by every one.

Oregon Grape, (Mahonia, or Ash-berry.)—The upright growing is one of the finest of evergreen shrubs, with its glossy foliage and large tresses of clear yellow flowers in early spring. It likes a dry sunny, gravely situation; well adapted for the south side of gardens; thereby giving shade to tender plants, such as Daisies, Primroses, Pansies, &c.

Sweet Laurel.—A low bush, with scented foliage.

Mountain Laurel.—A small tree with smooth shining bark and white flowers. Both kinds are very ornamental, and are found in sunny and dry locations. A good quality for our hot summers.

Flowering Laurel, (or Rhododendron, or Rose Bay.)—A charming shrub from the Cascade Mountains. Loves shade and rich soil.

Cedar, (American Arborvita, and Hemlock.)—When planted out small, can be formed into elegant shaped shrubs, as they stand cutting and shearing to any extent. Any situation, shady or sunny, moist or dry, suits them.

Huckelberry—red fruited, is a fine shrub. The red berries amongst the small leaves hang long into fall and look well. Loves shade.

Snowberry.—Has white berries in small clusters. Looks well amongst some evergreen. Likes sandy, open situations.

Arrowwood.—Has large clusters of white flowers in August. Grows 10 to 12 feet high. Any situation.

Spirea—of 3 varieties. The red and white flowering, grow from 4 to 6 feet; and the dwarf variety with dence large spikes of white flowers in September. Love moisture, but will grow anywhere.

Red Currant.—When trained in a low compact shrub, is a great ornament in early spring with its bright red tresses of flowers. It does well partly shaded by evergreens.

Syringa.—A shrub 8 to 12 feet high; found on poor sandy land. Its pure white flowers in spring are very fragrant and the bush is very ornamental, when grown in a thick stool.

Elder.—Two varieties, blue and red berried; makes a large shrub with a fine round head, and with its blue or red fruit hanging in large clusters is very attractive. Loves moist soil. Will grow on dry land very well, if only rich.

Here is a list of a dozen shrubs that would make a very attractive plat in a small garden. In my next I will point out some of the hardiest flowers that should be intermixed; also a list of foreign shrubs.

Important to Settlers.

The State Republican gives the following extracts from a letter from the Register of the Land office, Roseburg, Oregon. The subject matter is of interest to all donation claimants, and, therefore, the publication:

We have this day received a communication from the Commissioner of the General Land Office, notifying us of the passage of An Act entitled an Act to Reduce the Expenses of the Survey and Sale of the Public Lands, etc, approved 30th May, 1862, the 6th section which reads as follows: "And be it further enacted, that upon and after the 1st day of July next, the compensation of Registers and Receivers in all the Land Offices of the United States, shall be an annual salary of five hundred dollars to each, with the fees and commissions now prescribed by law, and to be paid by claimants, an additional fee in Donation cases of five dollars for each final Certificate for one hundred and sixty acres; ten dollars for three hundred and twenty acres; and fifteen dollars for six hundred and forty acres; to be accounted for in the same manner as fees and commissions in Warrant and Pre-emption locations, with limitations as to maximum of salary as prescribed by existing laws." This puts a quietus upon our prospects of clerical assistance, and at the same time inflicts upon the donation settler an onerous tax, the necessity of which would have been avoided had the former incumbents attended to their duties, and issued the certificates as fast as the claim plats were transmitted from the Surveyor General's Office This they have neglected to do; and the consequence is the donation settlers in this District alone will be compelled to pay from fifteen to twenty thousand dollars to have the work performed for which our predecessors received nearly thirty thousand dollars in salaries and three thousand five hundred dollars in clerk hire.

Certificates can only be issued in the name of, and for the benefit of the original donee, his heirs or assigns. But when the original claimant, from perversity, disloyalty, or any other similar reason, refuses or neglects to take the Oath of Allegiance, and pay the legal fees, as required by the circulars of January 6th and June 25th, 1862, then the party in interest can by filing an authenticated transcript of the deed, mortgage, or other evidence of interest in the claim, by paying the legal fees and by subscribing to the Oath of Allegiance, cause the certificate to be issued in the name of the donee, whose title will then be perfected by the issuing of the Patent

Respectfully, etc.,

A Gallant Husband.—Mr. Oldham, the aeronaut, states, in reference to the late balloon accident, that, owing to the extreme gustiness of the weather, he refused to allow any stranger to encounter the risk of ascent. The party who accompanied him was only his wife.

Juvenile Patriotism.—In Manchester, N. H., a little fellow, just past his first decade, stepped into his father's office a few days ago, and said to one of the clerks, "I shall get my company full pretty soon; I have sworn in three to-day." "Sworn in," said the clerk, "how did you do it?" "I made them hold up their hands and say 'Glory to God,'" said the incipient captain.

A six-year old Boston boy, who had become deeply imbued with the martial spirit, undertook to act as commander of a diminutive company in a New Hampshire town, where he was spending his vacation. He somewhat "astonished the natives" by the following order given in a very excited tone: "Company! Enemy's coming!—Forward march! Run!"

A Patriotic Clergyman.—The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin tells a story, for the truth of which it vouches, of a clergyman, stopping at one of the first class Hotels in New York city, who was aroused in the night by a burglar, who had managed to enter his room and was diligently prosecuting his calling. Cornering him, he lectured him eloquently on the evil of his ways, and finally agreed to let the culprit off if he would promise to enlist in the army. This compromise he was only glad to make, and the fellow is actually serving with the Army of the Potomac.

The first human sin was improper indulgence in eating, and it has been one of the chief sins ever since.

Non-Resident Notice.

Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Multnomah, at the November Term thereof, A. D. 1862.

S. Sherlock, W. Sherlock and C. E. Bacon, partners in trade under the firm name and style of S. Sherlock & Co., Plaintiffs, vs. A. J. Cain, Defendant.

IT HAVING BEEN MADE TO APPEAR TO THE SATISFACTION of the Judge of said Court that you, the said A. J. Cain are not a resident of the State of Oregon and cannot be found in said State after due and diligent search and that you have property in said State, and that said Court has jurisdiction of the subject of the above entitled action, and that service of summons cannot be made on you, and that a cause of action in the suit above entitled exists against you, it was ordered that service be made, in this cause by publication of notice to you, the said A. J. Cain. Now the said defendant, A. J. Cain, is hereby notified that the said plaintiffs have filed their complaint against you, the said defendant, in said Court, claiming to recover against you the sum of [illegible] and interest thereon at 10 per cent. per annum, from the 1st day of April, A. D. 1862, for a balance due them for goods, wares and merchandize sold and by them delivered to you. And also their affidavit for an attachment against your goods and chattels, lands and tenements and a writ of attachment was duly issued and levied upon your property.

Now, unless you, the said A. J. Cain, shall appear in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Multnomah county, on the second Monday in November, A. D. 1862, and answer the plaintiffs complaint filed herein, the same will be taken for confessed, and the prayer thereof will be granted by the Court.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court this the 18th day of August, A. D. 1862.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S

Private Medical & Surgical Institute,

SACRAMENTO STREET, BELOW MONTGOMERY,
Opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

ESTABLISHED IN 1854 FOR THE PERMANENT cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases, and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Attending and Resident Physician, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War; Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds; Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary; the late Lecturer on Diseases of the Urinary Organs, and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

Office Hours—From 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed, or no pay. Consultations, by letter or otherwise, FREE.

Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases, the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases, Self Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, Diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs, such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest [illegible] to health, as they are the first cause of consumption [illegible] and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which with the disease hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily and the victim marry, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities, and all diseases of males and females, treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice, and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of California, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who, having recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude, make known the causes and remedial agent, and their statement are authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of society imperiously command their publicity, and we commend their perusal to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly affected, where a permanent relief for their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay for the permanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practices of uncontrolled passion in youth, depressed in body and mind, unfit to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my case as of trifling importance—but, alas! after a few weeks, and in several instances, months of their treatment, I found, to my inexpressible horror, that instead of relief, my symptoms became more alarming in their torture, and being told by one that my disease being principally confined to the brain, medicine would be of little consequence, I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength, and energy; and as a last resort, and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who, after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my head became clear, and my ideas collected; the constant pain in my back and groins, the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study, and want of resolution, the frightful exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges have all disappeared; and in fact in two months after my first visit to the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life, that life, which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate from falling but the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience that they will be under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, SAN FRANCISCO—SIR: I have used the last of your medicine, and do not think I shall need any more, as I feel very well, except that I have not yet entirely got my strength yet, but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks you may recollect, since I called at your institute, with my constitution, as I thought, broken [illegible] that I never thought you would be able to cure me [illegible] the pill you ought to [illegible] to do some thing [illegible] the pain in my head, and head ached often, then my [illegible] and [illegible] troubled [illegible] Now I do not know what I would [illegible] Only [illegible] complete recovery from those [illegible] and blotches from my skin and the ulcers from my throat and the entire stoppage [illegible] which I [illegible] principally the [illegible] to you, which is the [illegible] not having only [illegible]

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

[illegible] impelled by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves a commendation, not only as a proof of scientific skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly, and from [illegible] unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent on the necessary treatment, and the incessant [illegible] which I met with, in attempting to get relief, [illegible] that I [illegible] the skill of any physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, [illegible] without the slightest warning, and although [illegible] the agonies I suffered [illegible] of the [illegible] I [illegible] look upon those who [illegible] a single [illegible] existence of my miseries. While in this state, and having, previous to my affliction, [illegible] the more withdrawn to attempt [illegible] by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my circumstances, and of my inability to reward him for his services; regardless of which, however, he at once undertook my case, and with the blessing of God I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the labor which I enjoyed [illegible] and [illegible] of my indebtedness, I consider it due to myself and all afflicted, to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
